

Securing Students' Data Privacy

Social Media Privacy Settings

Stay proactive in managing your privacy to enjoy a safer and more secure online experience.

- Regularly review and update your social media privacy settings.
- Take a few minutes today to go through the privacy settings on your social media accounts.

For further information please visit:

bit.ly/DPOissuessocialmediasafety

Third-Party Apps and Services

Don't let third-party apps jeopardize your privacy. Take control now to safeguard your personal information.

- When using third-party apps and services, always prioritize security and privacy.
- Take a moment to conduct a security audit of the third-party apps and services you currently use.

For further information please visit:

bit.ly/itdc-upsoftware

Cloud Storage and File Sharing

These services offer convenient access to your files while maintaining robust security measures.

- Check sharing settings and revoke access for any outdated or unnecessary users.

For further information please visit:

bit.ly/itdc-upcloudstorage

Research Data Protection

This includes obtaining informed consent from participants, anonymizing personal data, and securing storage.

- Protecting research data is essential for maintaining the integrity, confidentiality, and availability of your research findings.
- Review your current data protection protocols and make any necessary updates.

For further information please visit:

bit.ly/DPOresearchdata

